Day 5: Day 5 Seville – Granada

We'll begin our journey from kings to emirs as we travel from Seville to Granada this morning. A visit to this city will take you back in time to when the Moors ruled the foothills of the Sierra Nevada, their last fortress before being exiled to North Africa. You can still see their Arab influences in the Moorish architecture and tetería tea houses and we'll show you where to look this afternoon before you head out into the cobbled streets to explore your way. Alternatively, consider joining a Choice Experience tour of the Albaicín Quarter, the city's oldest neighbourhood, known as the Arab Quarter. You'll discover its Moorish history and see the fortified citadel of the Alhambra on the hilltop overlooking Granada. If you're looking for the perfect way to end the day, why not head out to a lively gypsy performance?

Overnight Stay at Hotel

Optional

Albaicín and the Royal Chapel

Experience Info

Join a Local Guide for a leisurely walking tour through the Albaicín, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that's a delightful mix of narrow streets and Moorish magic. Discover the Catholic Monarchs' tombs and peek at their treasures in the Royal Chapel. Cap that all off with a wander through the charming Alcaicería quarter.

Adults : From INR 4186* /- (€46)

Night Out in Old Granada

Experience Info

Take your Spanish trip to the next level with a memorable evening in Granada's Sacromonte quarter, famed for its stunning views over the illuminated Alhambra Palace. We've organised tickets for you to experience the passion of Zambra dances, performed by Granada's renowned gypsy clan right in their cave dwellings. This is a peek into a fiery and heartfelt tradition, complete with a drink to toast to the experience.

Adults : From INR 4368* /- (€48)

Day 6: Day 6 Granada – Guadix – Valencia

Head into the hills of Guadix this morning where you'll spot the magical white chimneys that rise from under the ground, where generations of the city's trogloditas have lived for several centuries. You'll have the chance to take some photos of these curious cave dwellings before moving on to the modern city of Valencia or 'Bah-len-thee-a' as the locals call it. Venture out on an orientation tour with your Travel Director, breathing in the scent of orange blossoms as you see the Art Nouveau train station Estación del Norte, the Towers of Serrano and Quart, and Mercado de Colon, which was declared sacred in the 13th century. You'll also make a stop to see Valencia's unique City of Arts and Sciences, a futuristic recreation centre that celebrates culture and science.

Overnight Stay at Hotel

Optional

Valencia's Golden Age, a Leisurely Walking Tour with Horchata Tasting

Experience Info

Check out Valencia's medieval core with a Local Guide, who's ready to take you on a journey from its Roman and Gothic roots to its heyday in Spain's Golden Age. You'll wander the old streets at a relaxed pace, and swing by the Lonja, a stunning piece of late Gothic architecture that's been turning heads since it became UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1996. It's history with a side of awe, served fresh in Valencia.

Adults : From INR 3549* /- (€39)

Valencia Dinner and Discovery

Experience Info

Delve into Valencia, Spain's third-largest city, where modern flair meets ancient roots, dating back to its Roman origins 2,000 years ago. This city isn't just alive with Mediterranean energy; it's the birthplace of Paella, Spain's iconic dish. Tonight, you're not just eating; you're stepping into tradition with a hands-on Paella experience. Join for a delicious journey at one of Valencia's landmark restaurants, where you'll celebrate the rich history and flavors of this unique Spanish masterpiece.

Adults : From INR 5642* /- (€62)

Day 7: Day 7 Valencia – Peñíscola – Barcelona sightseeing

Today, you head to the stunning seaside town of Peñíscola, nicknamed 'The City in the Sea.' See its towering Templar castle—once a Spanish Pope's palace and a Hollywood feature in El Cid. Then, cruise along the gorgeous Costa Dorada to Barcelona.

This afternoon, join your Local Guide to uncover the best of Barcelona. Snap a pic of La Sagrada Família's jaw-dropping exterior details and drive along the stylish Passeig de Gràcia. When night falls, the fun keeps going—you can choose to join a Choice Experience taking in the city lights on a drive to Montjuïc, with time for dinner at a seaside restaurant.
