Day 2: Day 2: Yerevan HTL - Yerevan Full Day City Tour - Yerevan O/N (B)

Today we are visiting the beautiful and lively capital of Georgia, Tbilisi. Our city tour starts at the Metekhi Depart for the Yerevan full day city tour that includes all the major sights of the capital. Yerevan is on the list as one of the world's "Oldest continuously inhabited cities ", dating back to 8th century BC. It's very lively with open cafes, eateries and local markets. Enjoy a panoramic view of Opera House, the magnificent scenery of the two ice-capped biblical Mount Ararat, Swan Lake, Northern Avenue and Republic Square which is considered one of the most amazing and famous places of the capital. Visit Cafesjian Center for the Arts and Sculpture Garden. The Cafesjian Center for the Arts is dedicated to bringing the best of contemporary art to Armenia and presenting the best of Armenian culture to the world. Inspired by the vision of its founder, Gerard L. Cafesjian, the Center offers a wide variety of exhibitions, including a selection of important work from the Gerard L. Cafesjian Collection of contemporary art. Having celebrated its grand opening in November 2009, CCA continues to exhibit unique works of modern and contemporary art and offers a diverse program of lectures, films, concerts, and numerous educational initiatives for adults and children. Over one million people have visited the Center annually since its opening.

Free time for lunch.

Visit Vernissage outdoor flea market where you can find local crafts jewelry, needlework as well as traditional carpets, books and t-shirts with traditional design. A favorite place also for the locals who are looking for original presents for their loved ones as well as for diaspora leaving out of the country's boundaries. (fully open on weekends only and partly on weekdays). Visit "Gumi Shuka", an Armenian indoor market, where you can have especially handpicked selection of local homemade products: dried fruits, pickles, spices. Experience the extreme hospitality of the vendors who will be simply offended if you don't try a piece of their home-made product.

Day 3: Day 3: Yerevan HTL – Levon's Cave - Garni Temple - Symphony of Stones – Azat River gorge - Yerevan O/N (B)

Head to master Levon's cave who dig on his own a labyrinth under his house using simple tools for 20 years. The length of the labyrinth is approximately 21 meters? Visit Garni village, famous for its Hellenistic pagan temple of the 1st c. It's the only pagan temple that survived after the Christianization of Armenia. The place is particularly famous for its nice landscapes and the extraordinary view opening to the gorge and surrounding mountains. Visiting the Garni Bathhouse provides a unique opportunity to experience ancient bathing rituals and appreciate the architectural achievements of the past. The Garni Bathhouse is a well-preserved example of medieval Armenian architecture. It was constructed during the 3rd century AD and showcases the ingenuity of ancient engineering and construction methods.

Enjoy lavash (local bread) baking process. Lavash (traditional thin bread) forms an integral part of Armenian cuisine (UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage).

Free time for lunch.

Descend the Azat River Gorge, where the "Symphony of Stones" or "Basalt Organ" seats. Those basalt columns were formed as a result of slow-moving lava. This natural monument is the highlight of the area and a favorite picnic spot for the locals.
