Day 3: Day 3: Yerevan HTL Ararat Valley - Areni Village - Bird Cave (Areni 1) Gnishik Canyon - Goris O/N (B)

The tour begins with a comfortable drive from Yerevan through the Ararat Valley, a breathtaking region in Armenia known for its fertile lands, vineyards, and iconic views of Mount Ararat. This drive will take you through the picturesque landscapes of the valley and introduce you to the agricultural and cultural highlights of this region. Next, you ll head to the Areni region, renowned for its winemaking traditions that date back thousands of years. Visit the Bird Cave (Areni-1) which is a 6100-year-old winery located at Areni village? Here you will have an interesting excursion inside an old cave with an exciting and mysterious past. The worlds oldest leather shoe (5500 years old) which is now preserved in the History Museum of Armenia was uncovered here during the archaeological excavations. Gnishik canyon is located in the province of Vayots Dzor, near Noravank monastery. It is also called Noravank Gorge because of its close proximity with the monastery. The Gnishik canyon leads up to it, with many rock formations made by volcanic activity. There are several caves in the area. On sunny days the cliffs and caves make a symphony of light and shadow which makes the beauty of the canyon indescribable.

Continue to Goris.
