After enjoying breakfast at your hotel, you will have a relaxed morning before departing for your afternoon tour. At 1:30 PM, you will join a seat-in-coach tour (a shared group tour) to explore the scenic beauty of Thousand Island Lake and the lush tea plantations of Pinglin.

The first stop of the tour is Thousand Island Lake, a stunning reservoir surrounded by emerald green mountains. The view of the lake, dotted with countless small islands, creates a picturesque setting that is perfect for photography. After soaking in the beautiful landscape, you will proceed to the Bagua Tea Plantation, one of Taiwan's most famous tea-growing regions. The tea terraces stretch over the hills in a breathtaking pattern, and you'll learn about the cultivation process of Taiwan's high-mountain oolong tea.

The museum showcases the traditional tea-making process and the significance of tea in daily life. Finally, you'll have the opportunity to participate in a tea-tasting session, where you will experience the delicate flavors of freshly brewed Taiwanese tea and learn the proper way to prepare and enjoy it.

After the tour concludes at 5:30 PM, you will return to Taipei, where you will have the evening to yourself. If you're looking for more adventure, you might consider taking a short hike up Elephant Mountain for a panoramic view of the city skyline, or simply relax at a cozy teahouse in one of Taipei's historic districts.
